

Points of interest

- 1 Civic Theatre (236-6510)
- 2 Convention Hall (236-6520)
- 3 Exhibit Hall (236-6500)
- 4 Convention & Visitors Bureau Information (232-3101)
- 5 Horton Plaza—Visitor Information Booth (239-1305)
- 6 Library (236-5800)
- 7 Post Office (293-5410)

- 8 Star of India (239-0625)

- 9 B Street Pier (291-2669)
- 10 Harbor Excursion (234-7383)
- 11 Broadway Pier (291-2669)
- 12 U.S. Naval Pier (235-3022)
- 13 G Street Pier
- 14 Ferry Boats (239-8161)

Transportation

- 15 Greyhound Bus Depot (239-9171)

- 16 Continental Trailways Bus Depot (232-2001)
- 17 Santa Fe Railroad Depot (232-2961)
- 18 San Diego International Airport (291-2675)

Government

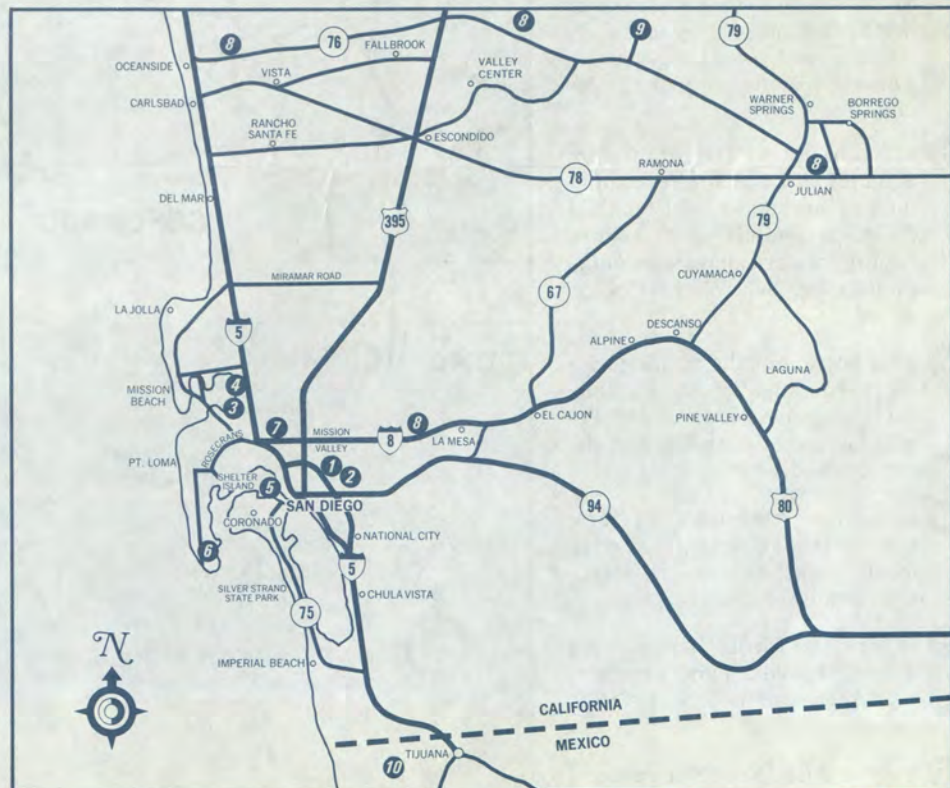

- 19 County Administration Building—Visitor Information Booth (239-7711)
- 20 City Administration Building—Visitor Information Booth (236-5555)

Important phone numbers:

San Diego Transit System (239-8161)
 Police Dept. (232-6981)
 Zoo, Balboa Park (234-5151)
 Mission Bay Information (276-5194)
 Fire Dept. (232-8191)
 Sea World, Mission Bay (224-3535)
 Emergency Ambulance Service (232-6981)
 San Diego Park & Recreation Dept. (239-7711, ext. 672)

San Diego City-County Attractions Map

- 1 San Diego Zoo. World's largest collection of wild animals—more than 5,000 species—children's zoo, bus tours, tropical settings.
- 2 Balboa Park. 1400 acres of gardens, museums, art galleries, picnic areas, golf, tennis and other sports, concerts and theaters.
- 3 Sea World. Giant Oceanarium with world's only performing killer whale, dolphins, Sea Maids and Japanese pearl divers.
- 4 Mission Bay Park. 4600 acres of sun and water fun, 27 miles of beaches, boat rentals, fishing, 5 fine resort hotels, view restaurants, golf, tennis, picnicking, water skiing and bay cruises.
- 5 San Diego Harbor. 25-mile harbor cruise; Star of India, world's oldest iron sailing vessel; Navy ships, from nuclear subs to carriers; tropical Shelter Island, with hotels, restaurants, fishing.
- 6 Cabrillo National Monument. Where Cabrillo discovered California. Old Point Loma lighthouse, spectacular panoramic view.
- 7 Old Town. Where California began; historic sites and buildings, shops that reflect earlier periods.
- 8 Missions. Including San Diego de Alcalá, the first; tours.
- 9 Palomar Observatory. World's largest telescope; space museum. A short drive through scenic mountains.
- 10 Mexico. 15 freeway minutes south, at city limits. Greyhound and horse racing, jai alai and bullfights. Enjoy duty-free shopping, Latin food, music and foreign country atmosphere.
- 11 Golf. 65 fine year-round golf courses in the San Diego area, always in peak playing condition.
- 12 Sportfishing. Scheduled boats daily from several landings.
- 13 Beaches. 70 miles of white sand beaches, open to public.
- 14 Scores of Fine Restaurants. You'll find your favorite foods in a wide variety of attractive settings, many of them with spectacular views.

san diego 52-mile scenic drive

Start at any point. Follow the blue and yellow signs with the white sea gull. Here are just a few of the things you will see and enjoy:

- 1 San Diego Harbor. One of the world's great natural harbors. Navy ships, freighters, pleasure boats, harbor excursion.
- 2 San Diego International Airport.
- 3 Shelter Island. A man-made paradise in Polynesian setting, with parks, boat ramps, boat slips, fine restaurants, resort hotels, sportfishing landings.
- 4 Cabrillo National Monument and Old Lighthouse. Provides breath-taking panoramic view of the Pacific Ocean, San Diego Bay, the city skyline with mountain ranges as a backdrop, Old Mexico.
- 5 Sunset Cliffs. An exciting view of the Pacific Ocean where it breaks against craggy cliffs. A favorite spot for daring surfers. Longest sportfishing pier on Pacific Coast.
- 6 Mission Bay Park. 4600-acre aquatic park which offers multitude of attractions and facilities ... resort hotels, golf, tennis, boating, water skiing, swimming, picnicking, Sea World Oceanarium.
- 7 This portion of the Scenic Drive takes you high above La Jolla for impressive views of the Pacific Ocean, Mission Bay and the city beyond.
- 8 La Jolla, America's Riviera. Charming community, with lovely parks, beaches, outstanding restaurants, hotels.
- 9 Where California Began. "Old Town," Presidio Park, museums — all scenes of historical significance.
- 10 Balboa Park. Beautiful gardens, museums, art galleries, recreation, San Diego Zoo.

